COMPANY OVERVIEW

Burford is experiencing significant growth and is consequently seeking a number of new members for its global team.

Burford's work environment is that of a start-up and therefore fast-paced and "always on." Despite its growth, Burford has endeavored to retain a culture characteristic of a small growing firm; hence its team members are creative, resourceful, fast-moving confident people who do not need the infrastructure of a large company to succeed. There is little administrative support and the expectation is that everyone, including senior people, will roll up their sleeves to perform and engage collectively for the overall success of the business.

Burford also operates in a geographically dispersed fashion, with its senior team in multiple locations and relying heavily on email and conference calls to communicate. Strong written communication skills are absolutely essential for success and a willingness to engage in substantive discussion by email instead of personally or by telephone is critical for fit and success.

Change - and the uncertainty and alterations in course and priority that accompany change - is a constant in Burford's business. Enthusiasm for change in a rapidly developing market is essential.

Burford pays base salaries consistent with the financial services industry and favors incentive compensation to reward performance.
