BURFORD CAPITAL APPOINTS JORDAN LICHT AS CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Burford Capital Limited, the leading global finance and asset management firm focused on law, today announces that Jordan Licht has been appointed as its Chief Financial Officer.

Mr Licht was previously the Chief Operating Officer of both Caliber Home Loans and Newrez LLC, which recently combined under the Rithm banner (NYSE: RITM) to form a top five non-bank residential mortgage origination and servicing business. Prior to the combination he held a series of senior finance and operating roles at Caliber, including Deputy Chief Financial Officer, and ran various initiatives including the dual-track IPO and M&A process that led to the acquisition by Rithm, a financial recapitalization and significant cost reductions. Prior to Caliber, he spent a decade at Morgan Stanley in financial services investment banking. Before his investment banking career, Mr Licht spent six years as a management consultant at Diamond Consulting (now PricewaterhouseCoopers). He has an MBA from Columbia Business School and an undergraduate degree from University of Pennsylvania. Mr Licht is also a non-executive director of United Texas Bank.

As Burford looks to complete its transition to a full US SEC-registered issuer and position itself more prominently with US investors, Mr. Licht brings deep US capital markets and investor experience.

Mr Licht replaces Ken Brause, who becomes a Senior Advisor to Burford and will assist in the CFO transition and continue to contribute his experience and insight to the business. Jim Kilman, Mr Brause's predecessor as Chief Financial Officer, continues in his role as a Senior Adviser.

Christopher Bogart, Burford Capital's Chief Executive Officer, commented:

"Jordan brings an impressive combination of deep finance, market and strategic skills to continue elevating Burford's finance function, and we are excited to have him join the senior management team as Ken's successor. We are grateful to Ken, with his vast experience, for his many contributions to Burford and our Finance function, including our transition to US GAAP, implementation of Sarbanes-Oxley Act-compliant internal controls and a successful debt issuance. I am happy that we will continue to have the benefit of his advice and counsel going forward along with his assistance ensuring a seamless transition."
